

WEB DESIGN

(For non-Visual Communication students)

CREDITS 12

INTRODUCTION

The web design minor introduces students to digital product design, strategy, and the technological skills associated with the discipline. Courses focus on digital design fundamentals, experiential design, user interface design, strategy, information architecture, prototyping, usability, front-end development and software.

COURSES

Required

DIGD 200 Fundamentals of Web Programming *

DIGD 206 Foundations of Web Design & Strategy *

DIGD 320 Javascript Programming

DIGD 403 Web Development - or - DIGD-307 Advanced Web Design & Strategy

* IDD-510 Essentials of Interactive Design (Graduate Studio, 6cr.) can be taken in place of DIGD-200 & DIGD-206

LINK TO MINOR FORM:

<http://www.eastfalls.jefferson.edu/successcenter/inc/pdf/advising/DeclaringaMinor.pdf>