

Landscape Architecture

12 credits

These two 12 credit minors, Landscape Design and Landscape Planning, introduce the student to the field of landscape architecture.

For the Landscape Design minor, the required courses cover the various areas—history/theory, technology, horticulture and design—that constitute an understanding of the discipline relative to design.

Choose one of the following technology and /or horticulture courses (3 credits):

LARC-212 Local Flora

LARCH-305 Plant Community Ecology

SCI-110 Landscape Ecology

LARC- 305 Sustainable Planting Design

LARC 409- Materials and Methods

Choose one history/theory courses (3 credits): LARC-206 History I, LARC-307-History II,

Choose one of the following LARC design studios (6 credits): LARC-300, LARC-304, LARC-400, LARC-401

For the Landscape Planning minor, the required courses cover the various areas—technology and history—that are needed for an understanding of the discipline relative to planning

Choose two or three of the following technology and /or horticulture courses (3 credits each):

LARC-212 Local Flora

LARCH-305 Plant Community Ecology

SCI-110 Landscape Ecology

LARC- 305 Sustainable Planting Design

LARC-310 GIS

LARC-412-Urban Hydrology

Choose one or two history/theory courses (3 credits): LARC-206 History I, LARC-307-History II,

LINK TO MINOR FORM:

<http://www.eastfalls.jefferson.edu/successcenter/inc/pdf/advising/DeclaringaMinor.pdf>